Call to Worship The Rev. Jody Andrade

One: We gather to worship together: different people, different congregations, different lives, different histories.

All: Yet we are all children of the same Parent, created lovingly by the Source of all life!

One: We gather to connect with one another: different people,
different congregations, different lives, different histories.

All: Yet we are all disciples of one Teacher: Jesus, the Word made flesh, dwelling among us.

One: We are one people with one God, one faith, one baptism.

All: Let us open ourselves to the presence of God at work in us, among us, and through us. Let us worship God!

Call to Confession The Rev. Jody Andrade
Prayer of Confession

God of Creation, Author of Life, Lord of Love, we confess that we have been far too stingy with your good news.
Maybe we're afraid there's not enough good news to go around, or that we need to protect it and save it up for ourselves. Forgive us, and teach us to be generous with the good news you have entrusted to us. Teach us to give it away so that your people may know you. Amen.

Assurance of Grace

Passing of the Peace

One: The Peace of Christ be with you.

All: And also with you.

Scripture Reading

John 4, selected verses

Elder Myong Kim in Korean language

Sister Vida Agyeman in Twi language

Elder Wayne Ten in Taiwanese language

[Jesus] left Judea and started back to Galilee. But he had to go through Samaria. Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired out by his journey, was sitting by the well. It was about noon. A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." (His disciples had gone to the city to buy food.) The Samaritan woman said to him, "How is it that you, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samaria?" (Jews do not share things in common with Samaritans.) Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water." The woman said to him, "Sir, you have no bucket, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water? Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, but those who drink of the water that I will give them will never be thirsty. The water that I will give will become in them a spring of water gushing up to eternal life." The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may never be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water." Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come back." The woman answered him, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You are right in saying, 'I have no husband'; for you have had five husbands, and the one you have now is not your husband. What you have said is true!" The woman said to him, "Sir, I see that you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain, but you say that the place where people must worship is in Jerusalem." Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth." The woman said to him, "I know that Messiah is coming" (who is called Christ). "When he comes, he will proclaim all things to us." Jesus said to her, "I am he, the one who is speaking to you." Then the woman left her water jar and went back to the city. She said to the people, "Come and see a man who told me everything I have ever done! He cannot be the Messiah, can he?" Many Samaritans from that city believed in him because of the woman's testimony, "He told me everything I have ever done." So when the Samaritans came to him, they asked him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days. And many more believed because of his word. They said to the woman, "It is no longer because of what you said that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the Savior of the world."
