Call to Confession	Katie
Prayer of Confession
Holy One, although we come to church on Sundays, we too often live the rest of the week as though you don’t exist. We act as though we created ourselves, with no connection to you, with no hope of transcendence. Open us to your constant presence, Holy One. Teach us to pray, and restore our awareness, that we may commune with you each day in the light of eternity. Amen.
Assurance of Grace	Katie
*Passing of the Peace	Katie

Adapted from The Second Helvetic Confession
Q. 98. What is prayer? A. Prayer is an offering up of our desires unto God, for things agreeable to God’s will, in the name of Christ, with confession of our sins, and thankful acknowledgment of God’s mercies.

Q. 99. What rule hath God given for our direction in prayer?
A. The whole Word of God is of use to direct us in prayer; but the special rule of direction is that form of prayer which Christ taught his disciples, commonly called “the Lord’s Prayer.”

Q. 100.What doth the preface of the Lord’s Prayer teach us?
A. The preface of the Lord’s Prayer, which is, “Our Father which art in heaven,” teacheth us to draw near to God with all holy reverence and confidence, as children to a father, able and ready to help us; and that we should pray with and for others.
